SENATOR MURPHY: After visiting with two legal counselors, they tell me severability actually is a factual thing, and kind of an artificial phrase anymore. I withdraw that suggestion.

PRESIDENT: The motion is withdrawn. The next bill, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: I move to return LB757 to Select File for specific amendment, Signed Senator Cavanaugh.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVNAUGH: Mr. President and members of the Legislature. The amendment that I had the other day for providing a different method of election in SID's, apparently I overdid it a bit, and caused a lot of SID's a lot of trouble. I provided for election only by resident property owners, and there is a lot of SID's that don't have any residence property owners. So they of course couldn't have an election. This would insure that two of the members would be elected by resident properties owners after six years. I move the bill be returned for the amendment.

PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion of the Senators amendment. This is a motion to return the bill to Select File. Is that right, Senator Cavanaugh. All right, for specific amendment. There is no discussion. No further discussion. All those in favor vote aye, all those opposed vote no. Clerk will record.

CLERK: 30 ayes, to return.

PRESIDENT: The bill is returned. Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: I move the bill be advanced.

PRESIDENT: The motion has been made to advance the bill. Is there any discussion. All these in favor of advancing the bill say aye, those opposed no. The bill is advanced. What's the next bill, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Well, I've got motions to adjourn. I have several other motions to revert to General File. Which do you want...I have a motion to advance...

PRESIDENT: The motion to adjourn. I understand the motions that are involved here. But the motion to adjourn takes precedence. Now let me explain to the body, so that everybody won't be unhappy. I know that Senator Goodrich, has a motion on LB656 to return it to General File. So the body is aware of that, Senator Goodrich. They know your motion is pending, and if anybody else wants me to tell anything about their pending motions, I'll do it, but the point is, that Senator Kennedy, I believe has the motion to adjourn. And that's to adjourn until 10:00 a.m. Is that right Senator Kennedy?

CLERK: Well, I have one by Senator DeCamp for 10:00 and one by Senator Syas for 10:00. The Kennedy lost some time back. All...

PRESIDENT: All right, Senator Syas, you have a motion to adjourn at 10:00. Points of order.

CLERK: It says after the Goodrich motion. DeCamp has one to adjourn until 10:00.

PRESIDENT: All right, in what order did those motions come to your desk, Mr. Clerk?
